

Setting up your account with Research in Practice

Research in Practice (RIP) supports evidence-informed practice with children and families, young people and adults. RIP brings together academic research, practice expertise and the experiences of people accessing services to develop a range of resources and learning opportunities.

As a partner of the Safeguarding Partnership Board, your organisation is able to access RIP's resources free of charge. To do this, you will need to set up a RIP account:

Go to www.researchinpractice.org.uk and select 'create account' at the top.

Use your work email and select 'States of Jersey' as your organisation from the drop-down list

Email *

My main area of work is in *

Organisation *

Job title / role *

Once you have logged in with your new account, the resources are free to download:

Published: 14/07/2016 Author: Kinman G, Grant L

Children & Families / Publications / Building Emotional Resilience In The Children And Families Workforce - An Evidence-informed Approach: Strategic Briefing (2016)

Citation:
Kinman G & Grant L. (2016). Building emotional resilience in the children and families workforce - an evidence-informed approach: Strategic Briefing (2016). Dartington: Research in Practice. Download citation file

This briefing provides strategic managers with evidence-informed messages regarding organisational approaches and personal competencies that underpin emotional resilience in frontline staff. It also highlights ways in which emotional resilience and wellbeing can be enhanced at each level using carefully-targeted interventions.

CPD Bookmark Share

Digital Download
Your Price Free

Hardcopy
Your Price £7.00

Please note: If applicable, VAT charges applied will be detailed on your invoice(s). This sale is not subject to VAT.

If you have any problems setting up an account, please contact safeguardingtraining@gov.je